Pre-Interior Design majors must meet the following criteria for admission to the Interior Design major.

Admission to the Interior Design Major

Complete at least 24 hours of college courses (including those listed below) and:

- a. Complete ART 1600, 1700, 1800, 1900, and ADES 1625 and 2630 with a grade of C or better and a minimum GPA of 2.5 in these courses;
- b. Submit a portfolio and pass the entry review in the spring semester in order to gain admittance into ADES 2640;
- c. Have at least a 2.25 UNT GPA;

Once admitted through review, students will move to major status with the creation of a degree plan.

The Interior Design curriculum is structured to enable students to develop the following competencies:

- Technical Knowledge: building systems, lighting design, interior construction details
- Technical Skills: architectural drafting, perspective drawing, 3D modeling, color rendering, architectural lettering, presentation craftsmanship, collaboration skills, verbal and visual communication skills
- Space Planning: residential design, contract design, programming
- Design History: art history, architectural history, interior design history, furniture design history
- Design Theory: color theory, design process, evidence-based sourcing

Portfolio Reviews for Interior Design Majors

Entry Portfolio Review

Students enrolled in ADES 2630: Drawing for Interior Design may participate in the portfolio review if they have met all other pre-major requirements listed above. No portfolio will be considered if the above requirements have not been met.

Top ranking students who have acquired the prerequisite skills will be invited to complete degree plans and permitted to enroll in ADES 2640: Space Planning I and upper division courses in the Interior Design program. Students who do not pass the review may re-submit one additional time the following spring semester. Students who successfully pass the portfolio review will be required to have a laptop that meets program specifications by the start of their junior level courses.

All students, including new, continuing, and transfer students are required to participate in the Entry Portfolio Review in order to achieve major status and continue in coursework within the major.

The review is conducted in the spring semester only.

Transfer Credit

Students must submit official transcripts of all prior collegiate-level coursework as part of the UNT admissions process. Transfer information is reviewed with the student at Orientation. All students, regardless of academic status, must be admitted to the Interior Design Program through the Interior Design Entry Portfolio Review.

Important Note: Students who do not have an official degree plan on file before the semester they plan to graduate may not apply for graduation.
